

Student Achievement Measures

Department of Institutional Research

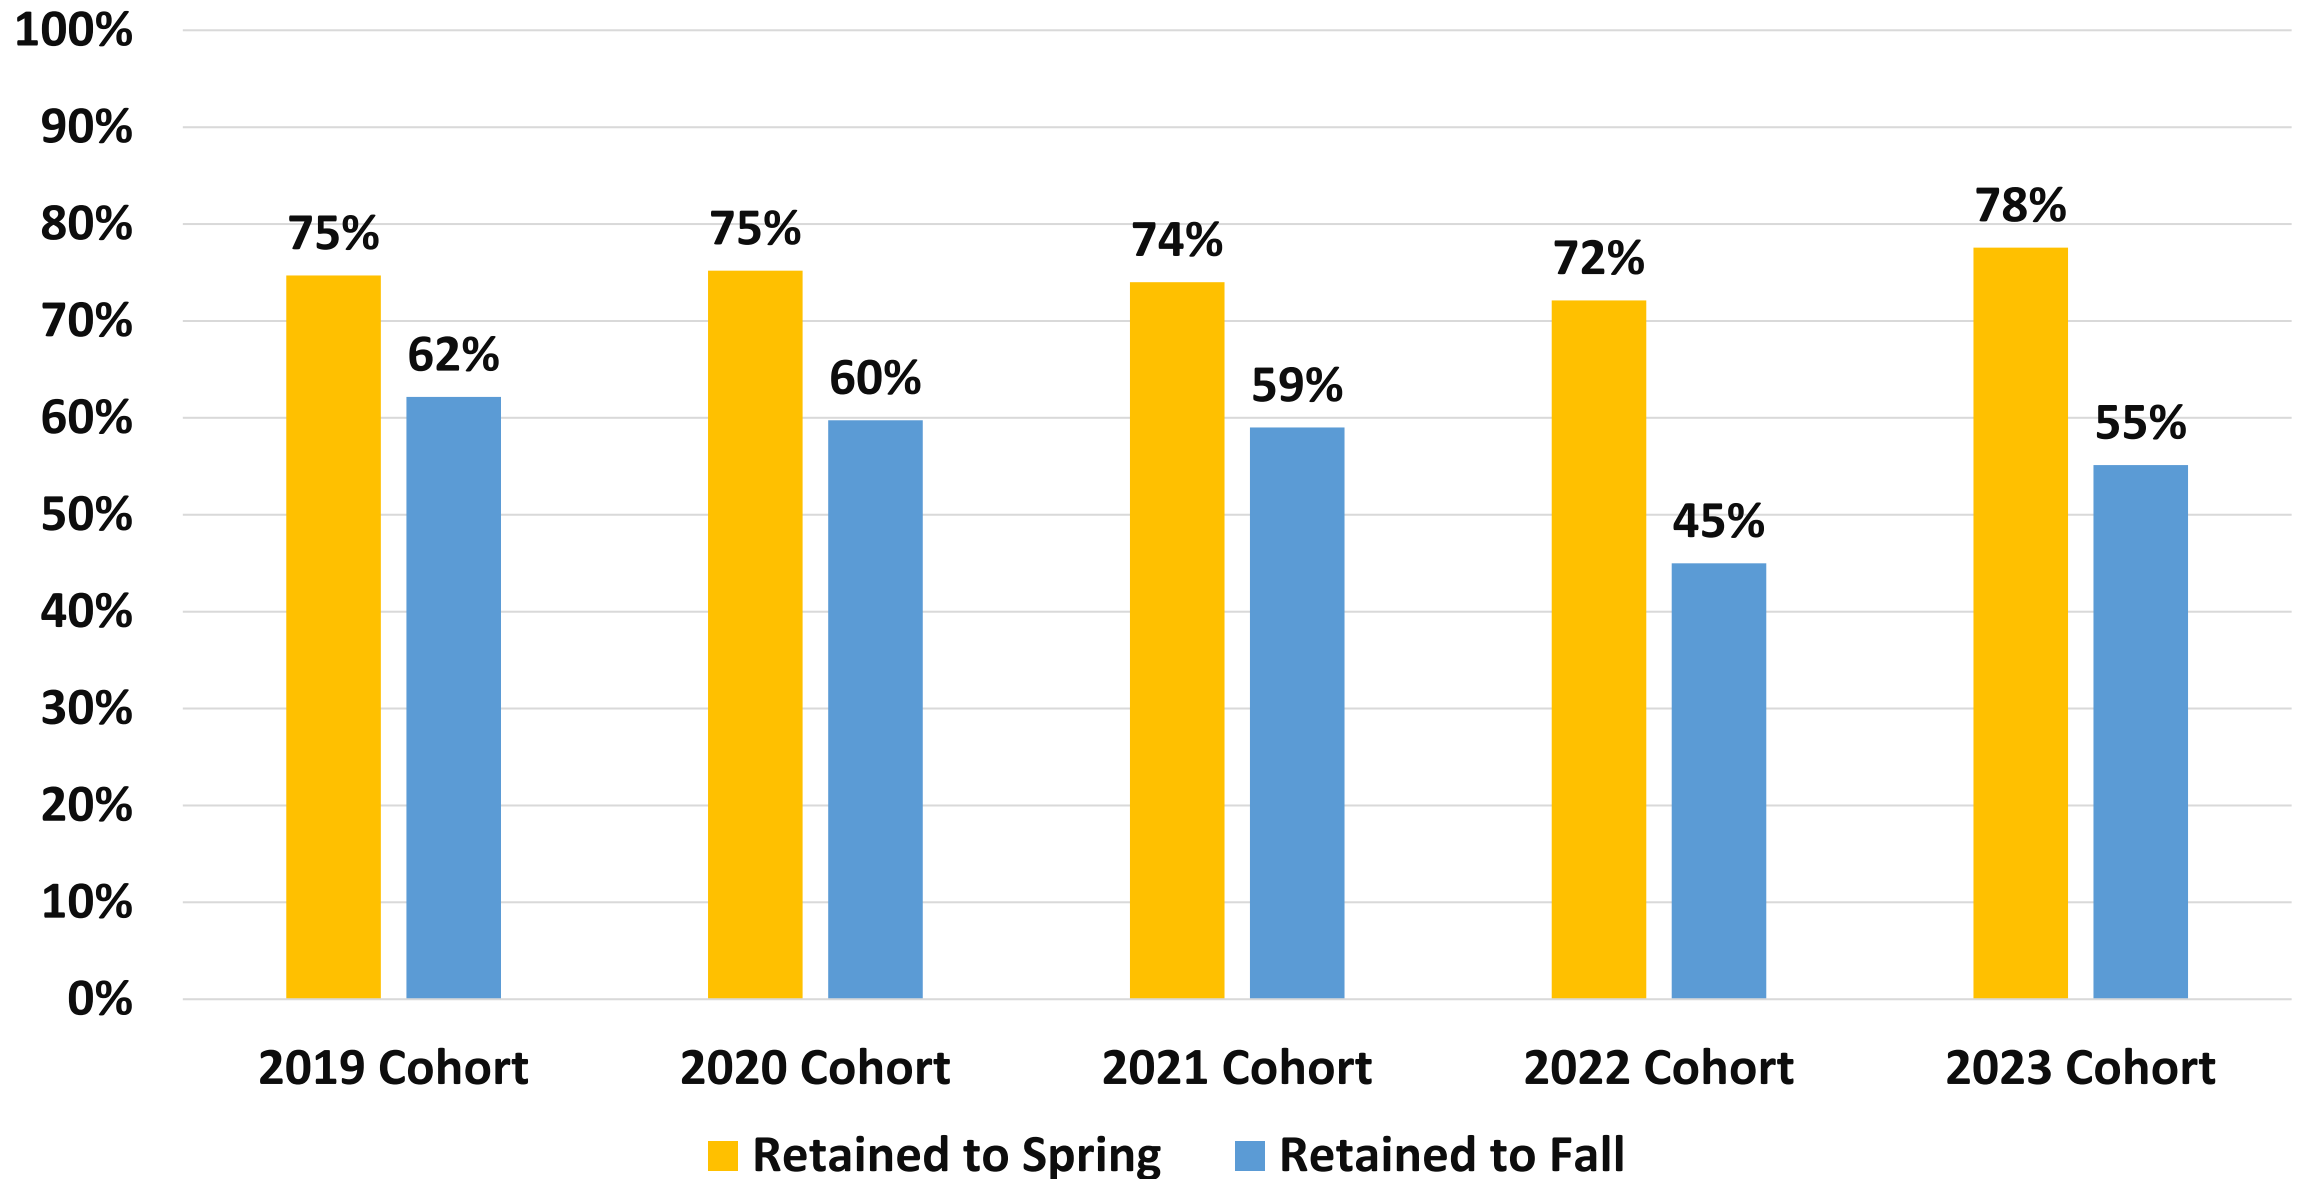

September 3, 2024

#StartStriveSucceed

Total Annual Enrollment

Retention of FTIC Cohorts

Defined as percent of first-time in college degree seeking cohort enrolled in the subsequent spring and fall semesters.

Data Source: Annual report generated by Institutional Research Department

IPEDS Outcomes Measures 8-yr Graduation Rate

The percent of first-time-in-college (FTIC) and transfer-in students attending Midland College full- and part-time who graduate within 200% of normal degree completion time. Data Source: IPEDS

Full-Time Graduation Rate

Defined as percent of cohort of first-time, full-time degree seeking students who complete a degree at MC or any other Texas institution within a 3-year period. Data Source: Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Accountability System

Postsecondary Retention and Placement

Defined as the percentage of career/technical program completers employed or pursuing additional education within one year of graduation. Data

Source: Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Perkins Data Resources Annual Report

Transfer Rate

Defined as percent of first-time in college (not concurrently enrolled in a four-year institution) cohort who transferred to a four-year institution within a six-year period. Data Source: Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Accountability Almanac Report

Licensure Pass Rate

Defined as percent of cohort of first-time, full-time degree seeking students who complete a degree at MC or any other Texas institution within a 3-year period. Data Source: Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Accountability System

