

Midland College Instructor Vitae: Janice Archer

Education

- Hastings College and Music Conservatory
- Mo-Master of Arts with Vocal and Musicology Emphasis, Graduate Assistant in teaching, University of Missouri in Columbia

Teaching Experience

- Adjunct of Voice and Piano, Established the Continuing Education Program in Music, Midland College, 2017 – 2025
- Adjunct Professor of Voice and Piano, Odessa College, 1986 – 2006
- Adjunct Professor of Voice, Midland College, 1980 – 1987
- Adjunct Music Professor, University of Texas Permian Basin, 1977 – 1981

Professional Presentations and Conferences

- Performances as a soloist with the symphony, guest with MC faculty, individual recitals sung and Music publicity appearances.
- 1980 - Leading Soprano Role as Rosalinda in "Dur Fledermaus" opera sponsored by Midland College. It was the first three act opera ever performed in Midland College and the precursor to the establishment of Midland Opera Theater

Professional Associations

- National Association of Teachers of Singing Master Classes

Awards and Honors

- Graduated with Honors at Hastings College
- Selected by the music faculty of Hastings College Music Conservatory as the Outstanding Performer
- As a graduate assistant at the University of Missouri, I sang a recital containing a piece by Anton Webern of which there did not exist any recordings. Therefore, it was sent to the University of Illinois Music Composition Dept as a special item for study.