

Midland College Instructor Vitae: Angela Sahli

Education

- Master of Fine Arts in Costume Design, Minnesota State University, Mankato, 2013
- BA in Musical Theatre Performance, Northern State University, 2009

Teaching Experience

- Weisser Park Arts Magnet School, Theatre Arts Artist in Residence, August 2018-February 2020
- Minnesota State University, Mankato, Costume Shop Supervisor, August 2016-July 2017
- College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University, Costume Shop Manager, February 2015-July 2016
- Cathedral High School, Drama Assistant, September 2013-May 2016
- Minnesota State University, Mankato, Graduate Assistant, August 2010-May 2013

Licensure and Certification

- Flipped Classroom Certification, The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL), Minnesota State University, Mankato [2016]

Professional Presentations and Conferences

- Guest Lecturer: "The Costume Design Process: from Page to Stage," Design Studio, THEA 320, Huntington University, Huntington, IN, Spring 2019
- Workshop Lecturer: Blood and Bruises, Civic Theatre Arts Workshop, Fort Wayne, IN, October 2018
- Workshop Lecturer: Getting the Fit Just Right: A Guide to Costume Fitting Etiquette, Procedures, Tips and Tricks, Civic Theatre Arts Workshop, Fort Wayne, IN, October 2018
- Guest Lecturer: "The Importance of Concept" Design Studio, THEA 320, Huntington University, Huntington, IN, Spring 2018
- Guest Lecturer: "An Introduction to Costume Technology," Theatre Technology, THEA 252, Theatre and Dance, Minnesota State University, Mankato, Spring 2017
- Workshop Lecturer: Getting The Fit Just Right: A Guide to Costume Fitting Etiquette, Procedures, Tips and Tricks, KCACTF Region V Festival 49, January 2017
- Workshop Lecturer: Design Intensive Whoville Hair: Yarn Wigs, KCACTF Region V Festival 49, January 2017
- Panelist, Color Conscious Casting and Educational Theatre: How to Produce Diverse, Inclusive Theatre in a Liberal Arts College Responsibly, College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University, January 18, 2016
- Workshop Lecturer: Getting The Fit Just Right: A Guide to Costume Fitting Etiquette, Procedures, Tips and Tricks, KCACTF Region V Festival 48, January 2016

- Workshop Lecturer: Costume Design for Dance, Theatre and Dance, Minnesota State University, Mankato, MN, American College Dance Festival Association (ACDFA), Spring 2013
- Workshop Teaching Assistant: Project Costume Design, Theatre and Dance, Minnesota State University, Mankato, MN, 28th Annual High School Workshop, Spring 2013
- Workshop Lecturer: Shadow Folding, Theatre and Dance, Minnesota State University, Mankato, MN, 27th Annual High School Workshop, Spring 2012
- Workshop Teaching Assistant: Stage Makeup, Theatre and Dance, Minnesota State University, Mankato, MN, 26th Annual High School Workshop, Spring 2011

Awards and Honors

- Emerging Artist: Arts United 2020 Awards honoring people and organizations who are making significant contributions to communities in northeast Indiana through arts and culture.
- Costume Design of the Decade (Sweeney Todd 2019): Broadway World 2020 Fort Wayne
- Certificate of Commendation, Costume Design, And Then There Were None, KCACTF, Region V [2013]